

Shipwrecks off Coos Bay

Locations of significant shipwrecks off Coos Bay. The number of wrecks testify to the hazards of seagoing navigation.

The shipwreck recently discovered on the North Spit has been identified as the schooner, G.L. Olson. It ran aground near Guano Island on June 23, 1944.

SOURCE: Coos County Historical and Maritime Museum. From the Victor West collection.

World Graphic by Jeff Trionfante © 2008 The World, Coos Bay, Ore