

Call for medical help by Coquille police

These are the transcripts of radio traffic between 911 dispatchers and officers from the Coquille Police Department. Coquille officers are designated by numbers beginning with six (601, 602) on the recording. Requests to the Coos Bay Police Department regarding clarification about which officer is represented by which number were referred to the Coquille Police Department, which refused comment on this story.

Officer: (unintelligible) Coos Bay, 12-1.

Dispatcher: Copy.

Officer: Coos Bay, we'll be out code six at 440 East Third.

(pause)

Officer: (unintelligible) Coos Bay. Request medical.

Dispatcher: 606, your traffic?

Officer: 606, Coos Bay, request medical, ASAP.

Dispatcher: Copy. And your location?

Officer: 440 East Third Street.

Second officer: 604, if you could expedite. He's not breathing.

Officer: Coos Bay, 602.

Dispatcher: Coos Bay.

Officer: Ah, copy there, at 44 East Third.

Dispatcher: I got 440 East Third.

Officer: 602, copy. (unintelligible) enroute.

Dispatcher: Copy. 606 — if possible can you advise further for the medical?

Officer: Copy. Someone on scene saying he had broken ribs. He attacked us, we took him to the ground and he's not breathing. Saying there is pain in the chest. There is no obstruction of the airway.

Dispatcher: Copy and confirm he is not breathing.

Officer: Confirmed. No breathing.

Dispatcher: Copy.

Officer: Code 2, 12-2.

Dispatcher: Copy.

Officer: 606, Coos Bay. Medical is on scene.

Dispatcher: Copy.

Officer: (unintelligible) to 602 (unintelligible).

Dispatcher: Copy 602.

Officer: Coos Bay, 602.

Dispatcher: Coos Bay.

Officer: 602, just for info, 601 has been advised of our situation.

Dispatcher: Copy.

(pause)

Dispatcher: Coos Bay, 606.

Officer: 606.

Dispatcher: Just to confirm, you're going to want a case number on this, separate from the original.

Officer: 606, standby. 606, if you could just attach this to the original, we'll just keep the original case number.

Dispatcher: Copy.

(pause)

Dispatcher: Coos Bay, 606. If you're available, can you 12-4 for a message relay?

Officer: 606, copy. I'll do (unintelligible).