

Could state own downtown Coos Bay?

According to Oregon Revised Statutes, land that is or was under water could be claimed by the state unless deeded away. Coos Bay officials want a simplified process for homeowners and businesses to learn if the state can lay claim to their land.

SOURCE: Oregon Department of State Lands

World Graphic by Jeff Trionfante